

Incubator All Hands Meeting

12:00pm – 5:00pm | William & Ida Friday Center | Chapel Hill NC
Tuesday, March 18, 2008

Sharing Innovation, Promoting Replication, and Inspiring Expansion

Incubator Partnerships were established to share resources, build capacity, & promote innovative practices to address public health issues.

Trillium Room

12:00pm-12:45pm
12:45pm – 1:00pm

Please join us for lunch in the Trillium Room
Follow signs to the Sunflower Room after lunch

Sunflower Room

1:00pm – 1:15pm

Welcome and Greetings
Recognition of Incubator Partners and Supporters

1:15pm – 1:45pm

Highlights from Incubator Progress to Date
--How have Incubators evolved?
--What have our regional partnerships accomplished so far?
--Plans for sharing information and promoting replication

1:45pm – 2:45pm

Innovation, Evidence, and Strengthening Incubator Projects:
Collaborations between Practice & Scholarship
Ideas for Replication:

- The Weight Wise Program in Local Health Departments:
Maggie Dollar and Carmen Samuel Hodge
- HPV Vaccine and Cancer Prevention:
Bill Smith and Noel Brewer
- Model Health Department Update:
John Graham and Phred Pilkington
- HIV Mobile Clinic:
Joanne Eddy and Colleen DiLiddo

2:45 – 3:00

Break

Bellflower Room

3:00pm - 4:30pm

Round Table Discussions:
Points of Interest and Projects with Intersection

- ◆ Featuring Multiple Partnership Projects for Replication
- ◆ Round Tables will rotate every 20 minutes.

Round Table Session Guide

ROTATION TIMES	Public Health Interventions	Innovations in Environmental Health Staff Recruitment & Retention	Organizational Efficiencies & Quality Improvement	Breakthroughs in Technology
3:00 – 3:20	SPARROW: CVD / Stroke Education, Prevention & Management Initiative Bill Smith & Betsy Redman	CIT Internship Program & Environmental Health Satisfaction Survey Mike Reavis & George Bond	Dental & Finance Task Forces Addressing Organizational Efficiency Kim Deheler & Cappie Stanley	Advances in Information Technology for Health Departments Ryan McGhee
ROTATION
3:20 – 3:40	SPARROW: CVD / Stroke Education, Prevention & Management Initiative Bill Smith & Betsy Redman	CIT Internship Program & Environmental Health and Staff Satisfaction Survey Mike Reavis & George Bond	Dental & Finance Task Forces Addressing Organizational Efficiency Kim Deheler & Cappie Stanley	Advances in Information Technology for Health Departments Ryan McGhee
ROTATION
ROTATION TIMES	Public Health Interventions	Public Health Interventions	Organizational Efficiencies & Quality Improvement	Breakthroughs in Technology
3:40 – 4:00	Sentinel Diabetes Intervention Initiative Erin Riddle and Joanne Eddy	Teen Tobacco Molly Brennan	Best Practices in Family Planning Maternity Care and WIC Candice DuVernois	CATCH John Graham
ROTATION
4:00 – 4:20	Sentinel Diabetes Intervention Initiative Erin Riddle and Joanne Eddy	Teen Tobacco Molly Brennan	Best Practices in Family Planning Maternity Care and WIC Candice DuVernois	CATCH John Graham

Sunflower Room

4:20pm - 5:00pm

4:45pm – 5:00pm

Group Discussion and Idea Sharing
Wrap-up: Future Directions

NC Public Health Incubator Collaboratives are voluntary groups of local health departments leveraging resources to develop regional collaboration and reach common public health project goals. Incubators support regionally defined projects to build lasting and effective collaborations for improving the public's health. Projects are relevant, sustainable, have impact, propose benefits, and aim to diffuse innovation across the region and state.